

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.
J. C. Hostetter, E. H. Elbridge
ORTON, ELDIDGE & HORTON,
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.
One upstairs, 1st door south of the Decatur
Nat. Bank. Nov. 1881.

ANK W. HAINES
HILL POSTER DISTRIBUTOR.

ENT SMITH'S OPERA HOUSE
is found on inquiry at the Reporters
the Room.

EL SHERRETT.

Attorney-at-Law,
Southwest corner of the Old Square, Decatur, formerly occupied by S. G. Miller, over W. C. Attebery's Drug Store.

JOSEPH E. MILLER,
Judge of the Circuit Court, State of Illinois,
Attorneys & Counselors-at-Law.

over the Decatur National Bank. Special attention given to all kinds of cases
and suits.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,
No. 12 East Main Street, up stairs. Decatur,
Illinois. April 1881.

A. RUCKINGHAM.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Corner Hinchliffe's Drug Store, Decatur,
Illinois. April 1881.

BORGE E. SHIRLEY, Decatur, Ill.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Special attention given to all kinds of cases
and suits.

A. S. WALLS.

DENTIST.
over Harbor & Gage Street, 1st floor.
Residence, No. 49 North Main Street,
Decatur, Ill. June 1881.

CHARLES T. SUMMERS.

ATTORNEY AT LAW

NOTARY PUBLIC.
FICE, on South Water street, 1st floor
of the Court House, with J. B. Curran
of the Peace. July 1881.

Prompt attention given to collections.

WILLIAM F. CUSSINS.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

OLICITOR in Chancery

No. 10 Water street, Decatur, Ill.

Private funds to foreclose on lot 4
Block 12, June 1881.

ENRY MITCHELL.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

DECATOR, ILLINOIS.

Special attention to Commercial business
conducted in all state courts.

No. 12 East Main Street, Decatur, Ill.

FR. DE. HENKEL.

PROVANT, Test and Business Medium.

SUNDAY EVENING STAR, 9c; CLOCK, A. M., 2c
WEDNESDAY EVENING STAR, 10c; JOURNAL OF THE
S. No. 10 Water street, Decatur, Ill. July 1881.

W. W. WHEELER, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Special attention given to the diseases of men and children.

No. 10 Water street. Residence No. 36
Main Street, Decatur, Ill.

W. A. BROWN.

Attorney-at-Law,

Master in Chancery for Marion county
and all other Linn & Scotts city districts
and entrance fees to Court of Common Pleas. June 1881.

W. J. LANE.

DENTIST.

No. 10 Water street, Decatur, Ill.

FR. C. DUPREE.

Attent. Solicitor and Mechanical Draftsman.

with H. W. Hall & Co., corner of West
and Church Streets, Decatur, Ill. P. O.

Sept. 1881.

C. JOHNS.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

1st East Main street, Decatur, Ill.

Special attention to all business.

Sept. 1881.

W. M. L. CAIN will receive pupils on classical Reading, Oratory and Voice Culture.

Complete list, call personally on
No. 10 Water street, Decatur, Ill.

Sept. 1881.

W. WOODRUFF JENKS.

OLICITOR OF PATENTS,

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN.

Conduct all proceedings in interference
with any other business conducted with the U. S. Patent Office.

Over Decatur Drug Store, 10th
and Park, Decatur, Illinois.

Sept. 1881.

ARVEY PASCO.

Attorney at Law,

in Chancery and Notary Public.

Debtors, Mortgagors, Bailiffs, Contractors
of Level Instruments, etc.

Acknowledgments taken and Musters made. Attention given to Probate In-suits. All matters arising under the laws of the United States, Criminal and Civil.

Over Decatur Drug Store, 10th and Park,
Decatur, Illinois.

Sept. 1881.

Dr. JAMES'

East Hospital,

204 Washington St.

Chattered, Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best equipped
in the city.

Dr. JAMES' Hospital

is the largest and best

THE Republicans of Massachusetts on Wednesday renominated Gov. Long and the entire list of state officers now incumbent.

THE second son of the late President Garfield, who was quite ill with malarial fever at Williams college at the time of his father's death, has improved sufficiently to be able to start for home to-day, to attend the funeral.

FUNERAL services over the body of the late President Garfield will be held at the capitol at Washington at three o'clock this afternoon, after which the remains will be taken to Cleveland where the final obsequies will take place on Monday.

THERE are in Washington to-day, as an unprecedented coincidence of a very solemn emergency, a dead president, a live president, and two ex presidents—the latter being Grant and Hayes, who are the only surviving incumbents of the chief executive office.

MR. J. M. RUSK is the Republican nominee for governor of Wisconsin. The convention was held on Wednesday, but the great interest of the public in the mournful news from Long Branch and Washington caused it to be almost completely lost sight of by the newspapers.

THE second swearing in of President Arthur yesterday, at the capitol in Washington, was a mere formality, which was gone through with at the suggestion of members of the cabinet and others, who thought it would be better to observe the precedent long since established, of inaugurating the executive at the seat of government. The brief address of the new President will certainly command him to the confidence of the people.

DAYS PRISONERS OF WAR.

The next annual meeting of the National and State Associations of Union Prisoners of War will be held at Springfield, on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 19th and 20th, 1881. A banquet will be given and a general good time is expected. Special rates on the railroads and at the hotels will be procured, and the attendance of every Union Prisoner of War is desired. W. W. Lowdermilk, of Springfield, is secretary of the state association, and will furnish all necessary information. The following are the committees of the National Association:

Finance—Col. Merriman, Major Herrick and Major Johnson.

Arrangement—Gen. Elliott, Gen. Reece, Charles P. Swigert, H. D. Dement and Edward Ruiz.

Printing and Invitations—Capt. W. W. Lowdermilk, Capt. Chapin and Captain Jacob Wheeler.

Banquet—Col. Wiggins, Major Johnson, Capt. Smith and Capt. J. B. Brinkerhoff.

Transportation—Capt. G. S. Davis, Capt. M. Bassett, of Peoria, Jas. A. Miller, of Decatur, and Col. Wiggins.

THE new President is entitled to the confidence of the American people. He is a man of ability and integrity, and of approved patriotism. The presumption is that he will enter upon his duties with the firm determination to carry out, in all essential particulars, the principles and policy indicated by his illustrious predecessor in his inaugural address a little over six months ago.—Columbus (Ohio) Journal.

President Arthur is an able man, a patriotic citizen, and a statesman in every way equal to the terrible emergency that calls him to the post of chief magistrate of the nation. The new President has the full confidence of the business men of the country, and his administration will be marked by wisdom and prudence, giving renewed ability to commerce and financial affairs. His ability, experience, wisdom, and high character entitle him and his administration to far consideration at the hands of all the people of this country. His friends ask no more.—Cincinnati Times Star.

TELKA GERSTER

To Haines Brothers, the Night Before
Starting From America

MRS. HATHAWAY BROOKS, 184 Fifth Avenue

GENTLEMEN—Before departing from America I beg to express my pleasure and delight in having had one of your superb Concert Upright Piano Fortes to go with me in New York. It sustains the voice admirably, and in all respects answers the demands of the most exacting artist.

ETELKA GERSTER HARRING

New York, June 3, 1881.

Madame Gerster's last purchase before leaving New York was a Haines Concert Upright.

These most celebrated Pianos can be seen at Prescott's Music Parlor, who are sole Agents for Illinois.

Sept. 19—d&w

Tempo.

The opening meeting of the temperance campaign will be held at the tabernacle on Saturday night of this week, Sept. 24, 1881. J. W. Nichols, of Bloomingdale, Ill., will be the speaker. Let other engagements pass if possible and attend this meeting. All singers who would be willing to join in a tabernacle choir will please attend and sing with the organists.

D. L. BROWN, Tabernacle, Bloomingdale.

TELEGRAPHIC INAUGURATED.

FORMAL Installation of President Arthur.

His Address and Proclamation.

How the People Crowd Around the Dead President's Bier.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Arthur has just taken the oath of office in the marble room at the capitol, in the presence of the members of the cabinet, the justices of the supreme court, a few senators and members of the house of representatives—all who could be notified this morning in time to be present. There were present also General Sherman, General Grant, Rear Admiral Nichols, Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, General Beale and a few others. This step was taken after a conference between the President, Secretary Blaine and the attorney general. Very few persons knew that the oath was to be administered until the ceremony was over. The President and members of the cabinet had assembled in the marble room shortly before 12 o'clock. Chief Justice Waite, in his full robes of office, accompanied by the associate justices, proceeded from the supreme court room to the marble room. The doors were immediately closed, and without any formality, President Arthur arose, and standing upon one side of the centre table, with Chief Justice Waite on the other, took the oath of office.

The President's manner was calm and composed, and his response, "so help me God," was in a firm tone and without a tremor. The President then read from manuscript notes the following:

For the fourth time in the history of the republic, its chief magistrate has been removed by death. All hearts are filled with grief and horror at the hideous crime which has darkened our land, and the memory of the murdered President, his protracted sufferings, his unyielding fortitude, the example and achievements of his life, and the pathos of his death, will forever illuminate the pages of our history.

For the fourth time the officers elected by the people, and ordained by the constitution to fill the vacancy so created, is called to assume the executive chair. The wisdom of our fathers, foreseeing even the most dire possibilities, made sure that the government should never be imperiled because of the uncertainty of human life. Men may die, but the fabric of our free institutions remain unshaken. No higher or more assuring proof could exist of the strength and permanency of popular government than the fact that, though the shown of the people be struck down, his constitutional successor is peacefully installed without shock or strain except the sorrow which mourns the bereavement. All the noble aspirations of my lamented predecessor, which found expression in his life, the measures devised and suggested during his brief administration to correct abuses and enforce economy; to advance the prosperity and promote the general welfare; to insure domestic security and maintain friendly and honorable relations with the nations of the earth, will be garnered in the hearts of the people, and it will be my earnest endeavor to profit, and to see that the nation shall profit, by his example and experience. Prosperity blesses our country; our fiscal policy is fixed by law, is well grounded and is generally approved. No threatening issue mars our foreign intercourse, and the wisdom, integrity and thrift of our people may be trusted to continue undisturbed the present assured career of peace, fraternity and welfare. The gloom and anxiety which have enveloped the country must make repose especially welcome now. No demand for speedy legislation has been heard, no adequate occasion apparent for an unusual session of congress. The constitution defines the functions and powers of the executive as clearly as those of either of the other departments of the government, and must answer for the just exercise of the discretion it permits, and the performance of the duties it imposes. Summoned to these high duties and responsibilities, and profoundly conscious of their magnitude and gravity, I assume the trust imposed by the constitution, relying for aid on divine guidance, and the virtue, patriotism and intelligence of the American people.

Secretary Blaine assured the President that he could depend upon them to use their best efforts to tranquillize the country and to aid him in the performance of his duties in the present trying circumstances. It is understood however that the resignations have not been formally declined or accepted, but that the cabinet will simply continue to discharge their duties until a more suitable time arrives for the decision of the question of their retention. It may safely be said that before the close of next week a proclamation will be issued by the President calling the senate in executive session. The time fixed will be not later than the 18th of October. It is understood that the President was averse to the calling of the session, but has yielded to weight of senatorial opinion, which has been freely expressed during yesterday and to day. In declining to accept the resignations of the cabinet, President Arthur did not commit himself to anything definite. He remarked that under the present circumstances he could not be expected to give his attention to national affairs, and, therefore, any thought to the subject of selecting his advisers. His request was that the present cabinet continue in the discharge of their duties.

A proclamation was prepared and signed by the president, designating Monday, the 26th inst., the day upon which the funeral takes place, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer throughout the country. No other business transacted.

The members of the cabinet were requested to retain their respective positions.

It is authoritatively learned, as well as indicated by the president's inaugural address, that there will be no session of congress until the regular session in November next.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 22.—The following proclamation has just been issued by President Arthur:

PROCLAMATION.

By the President of the United States of America.

WHEREAS, in His inscrutable wisdom it has pleased God to remove from us the illustrious head of the nation, James A. Garfield, late President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the deep grief which fills all hearts should manifest itself with one accord toward the throne of infinite grace, and that we should bow before the Almighty and seek from Him that consolation in our affliction and that sanctification of our loss which He is able and willing to vouchsafe.

Now, therefore, in obedience to the sacred duty, and in accordance with the desire of the people, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Monday next, the 26th day of September, on which day the remains of our honored and beloved dead will be consigned to their last resting place on earth, to be observed throughout the United States as a day of humiliation and mourning, and I earnestly recommend all people to assemble on that day in their respective places of divine worship, there to render alike their tribute of sorrowful submission to the will of Almighty God, and, to their reverence and love for the memory and character of our late chief magistrate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, on the 22d of September, in the year of our Lord, 1881, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and sixth.

(Signed) CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President: JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

(Seal)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—10:30 a.m.—The remains of the late President Garfield, now lying in state in the rotunda of the capitol, have, up to this hour, been viewed by over 25,000 persons. During the entire night a steady stream of humanity passed through the capitol building to take a last look.—6,000 to 8,000 people are now in two lines from the east to the front of the capitol and for a long distance up East Capitol street, and are passing through the east door of the rotunda, one on either side of the remains, and out through the west door, at the rate of about 4,000 an hour. Among those who took a last look at the face of the dead president this morning were a number of Sisters of Charity and several hundred Catholic orphans from St. Vincent's and St. Joseph's Orphan Asylums. Many persons from Baltimore and Philadelphia arrived here to view the remains.

From 8 o'clock the crowd has constantly increased, and has been passing the bier at the rate of sixty a minute.

At 11 o'clock there was a dense mass of people in front of the main steps on the east front, extending two squares up East Capitol street.

People are flocking to the city.

Every incoming train on the several railroads is heavily freighted with those coming to testify their profound sorrow at the nation's bereavement.

Four elaborate and exquisitely beautiful flower pieces were received from the white house, and have been placed at the head of the bier. Other floral tributes have also been received and placed about the catafalque.

The body will lie in state until Friday noon, when seats will be placed in the rotunda for those who will be admitted to attend the funeral services, which will take place at 3 o'clock that afternoon.

Rev. Frederick Power, pastor of the deceased President, will officiate. The space will accommodate about 1,500 people, and only that number of tickets will be issued.

—

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The cabinet to day, through Secretary Blaine, tendered their resignations to President Arthur at the cabinet meeting at the capitol after the President was sworn in. The act was accompanied by an expression of the warmest sentiments of personal regard, and the President was given to understand that the members of the cabinet desired only to relieve him of all embarrassment without regard to past political events. The President, without formality, said that he did not desire to accept the tendered resignations and would esteem it a personal favor if they would continue in the discharge of their duties. The condition of public business and sensitiveness of the public mind, in view of the great national bereavement, warranted him in asking this indulgence at their hands.

Secretary Blaine assured the President that he could depend upon them to use their best efforts to tranquillize the country and to aid him in the performance of his duties in the present trying circumstances. It is understood however that the resignations have not been formally declined or accepted, but that the cabinet will simply continue to discharge their duties until a more suitable time arrives for the decision of the question of their retention. It may safely be said that before the close of next week a proclamation will be issued by the President calling the senate in executive session. The time fixed will be not later than the 18th of October.

It is understood that the President was averse to the calling of the session, but has yielded to weight of senatorial opinion, which has been freely expressed during yesterday and to day.

In declining to accept the resignations of the cabinet, President Arthur did not commit himself to anything definite.

He remarked that under the present circumstances he could not be expected to give his attention to national affairs.

and, therefore, any thought to the subject of selecting his advisers.

His request was that the present cabinet continue in the discharge of their duties.

—

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The cabinet to day, through Secretary Blaine, tendered their resignations to President Arthur at the cabinet meeting at the capitol after the President was sworn in. The act was accompanied by an expression of the warmest sentiments of personal regard, and the President was given to understand that the members of the cabinet desired only to relieve him of all embarrassment without regard to past political events. The President, without formality, said that he did not desire to accept the tendered resignations and would esteem it a personal favor if they would continue in the discharge of their duties. The condition of public business and sensitiveness of the public mind, in view of the great national bereavement, warranted him in asking this indulgence at their hands.

Secretary Blaine assured the President that he could depend upon them to use their best efforts to tranquillize the country and to aid him in the performance of his duties in the present trying circumstances. It is understood however that the resignations have not been formally declined or accepted, but that the cabinet will simply continue to discharge their duties until a more suitable time arrives for the decision of the question of their retention. It may safely be said that before the close of next week a proclamation will be issued by the President calling the senate in executive session. The time fixed will be not later than the 18th of October.

It is understood that the President was averse to the calling of the session, but has yielded to weight of senatorial opinion, which has been freely expressed during yesterday and to day.

In declining to accept the resignations of the cabinet, President Arthur did not commit himself to anything definite.

He remarked that under the present

circumstances he could not be expected to give his attention to national affairs.

and, therefore, any thought to the

subject of selecting his advisers.

His request was that the present cabinet continue in the discharge of their duties.

—

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The cabinet to day, through Secretary Blaine, tendered their resignations to President Arthur at the cabinet meeting at the capitol after the President was sworn in. The act was accompanied by an expression of the warmest sentiments of personal regard, and the President was given to understand that the members of the cabinet desired only to relieve him of all embarrassment without regard to past political events. The President, without formality, said that he did not desire to accept the tendered resignations and would esteem it a personal favor if they would continue in the discharge of their duties. The condition of public business and sensitiveness of the public mind, in view of the great national bereavement, warranted him in asking this indulgence at their hands.

Secretary Blaine assured the President that he could depend upon them to use their best efforts to tranquillize the country and to aid him in the performance of his duties in the present trying circumstances. It is understood however that the resignations have not been formally declined or accepted, but that the cabinet will simply continue to discharge their duties until a more suitable time arrives for the decision of the question of their retention. It may safely be said that before the close of next week a proclamation will be issued by the President calling the senate in executive session. The time fixed will be not later than the 18th of October.

It is understood that the President was averse to the calling of the session, but has yielded to weight of senatorial opinion, which has been freely expressed during yesterday and to day.

In declining to accept the resignations of the cabinet, President Arthur did not commit himself to anything definite.

He remarked that under the present

circumstances he could not be expected to give his attention to national affairs.

and, therefore, any thought to the

subject of selecting his advisers.

His request was that the present cabinet continue in the discharge of their duties.

—

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The cabinet to day, through Secretary Blaine, tendered their resignations to President Arthur at the cabinet meeting at the capitol after the President was sworn in. The act was accompanied by an expression of the warmest sentiments of personal regard, and the President was given to understand that the members of the cabinet desired only to relieve him of all embarrassment without regard to past political events. The President, without formality, said that he did not desire to accept the tendered resignations and would esteem it a personal favor if they would continue in the discharge of their duties. The condition of public business and sensitiveness of the public mind, in view of the great national bereavement, warranted him in asking this indulgence at their hands.

Secretary Blaine assured the President that he could depend upon them to use their best efforts to tranquillize the country and to aid him in the performance of his duties in the present trying circumstances. It is understood however that the resignations have not been formally declined or accepted, but that the cabinet will simply continue to discharge their duties until a more suitable time arrives for the decision of the question of their retention. It may safely be said that before the close of next week a proclamation will be issued by the President calling the senate in executive session. The time fixed will be not later than the 18th of October.

It is understood that the President was averse to the calling of the session, but has yielded to weight of senatorial opinion, which has been freely expressed during yesterday and to day.

In declining to accept the resignations of the cabinet, President Arthur did not commit himself to anything definite.

He remarked that under the present

circumstances he could not be expected to give his attention to national

RINT'S
HAMS,
TICKS,
IMS, PLANNELS,
FLANNELS,
To-Day!
stock of
SETS
MBROIDERIES.
Goods Every Day.
YS & CO.
ARE
tter lines of everything
ver shown.
of prices on any and
only give you a finer
ces than smaller deal-
of Diamonds at prices
dealers can offer them.
cash, direct of import-
can buy them, and can ser figures than Chicago
our expense of doing
compared to theirs.
and your money.

JURTIS & CO.
EWELERS.

FURNITURE!

MATTRESSES, PILLOWS

PARLOR SUITES,

BED-ROOM SETS,

DINING ROOM FURNITURE,

LOOKING GLASSES,

QUEENSWARE,

GLASSWARE,

LAMPS,

HULL'S VAPOR STOVES

COOKING AND HEATING STOVES

The latest and best patterns

BASE BURNERS,

NEW PRICE.

In fact, almost everything

you may want for Housekeeping.

If you would secure Bargains in any goods I keep,
please call at the Mammoth Stores of

R. LIDDLE.

Court House Block.

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 17, 1881.—H. W.

$72 A WEEK. $12 a day. At home party made. Costly. Address: Mrs. A. L. Liddle.

Augusta, Maine.

Fine goods of all kinds for men, boys,
and children, are daily received by

Fleury, corner of Old Square.

2 d&w.

TALLEYRAND

Talleyrand says, "The use of words is to convey our thoughts. We can't find words good enough to express our thoughts when we find them entirely clogged by Spring Breeze."

Prices $1.50, and 25 cents.

Call at 4 cents a yard, worth 16 cents
will be on sale Saturday next, Sept. 24.

Linn & Scroggs.

Sept. 21.

The Daily Republican
FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 24, 1881.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

LUNCH BASKETS in endless variety, at
E. D. BARTHOLOMEW & Co.'s.
WARMER'S Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.
Did you go to the dance last night?
Last day of the fair.

"Worthy World" matinee to-morrow
afternoon.

It showered just a little this morning,
but not enough to do any harm.

BEST finished Photographs $1.00 per dozen at Wall's. 18-2d.

New lot of Dress Goods, in all shades,
just received at F. L. Hays & Co's.
21-d.

GRACE CARTLAND and John Murray at
the opera house to-night.

Go and see the popular play, "Camille,"
at the opera house to-night.

ELDORADO Hose Company will give a hall on Thursday evening, Sept. 23d, at their hall on East Eldorado street —
Admission, 20 cents. 7-d.

If you would be happy and contented
smoke none but Schroeder's celebrated Bohemian cigars, sold by all first-class dealers.

ELEGANT toilet goods and the finest perfumery always in stock at W. C. Armstrong's drug store. Call there.

The public schools of Decatur closed
this noon, and will not be reopened until Tuesday morning, Sept. 27th.

C. W. CHALLIS at sign of big boot upside down, sells boots and shoes cheaper than any house in the city. Try him.
Sep. 22-d.

The handsomest line of ladies' and
children's Cloaks, Dolmans and JACKETS
in the city at F. L. Hays & Co's. 21-d.

A TEAM belonging to a farmer ran away on Wood street this forenoon, but the damage was confined to a broken
dash-board.

W. C. BULLARD has railroad tickets to St. Louis and Kansas City for sale cheap,
at Radcliff & Bullard's. Sept. 23-d.

For bargains in boots and shoes try
the post office block Shoe Store.
Sep. 23-d.

FANCY and Lunch Baskets, at prices
heretofore unknown in Decatur. See them CHEAP STORE 21-d&w.

The seven year old son of Jacob Becker, the gardener, who lives two miles northwest of this city, fell and ran a harrow tooth through the call of his leg,
about three weeks ago, and for some days
past has been seriously threatened with an attack of lockjaw. At present, however, he appears to be better and strong
hopes of his recovery are now entertained.

THERE were about 130 persons present
at the ball given by Eldorado Hose Co., at their headquarters last night, though some two or three hundred tickets were sold, and it was pronounced the best ball
ever yet given by the company. Prof.
Wilhelmy's orchestra furnished the music,
and Mr. Frank Battiger was prompter.
There will be more of them in the future.

At the residence of the bride's father,
Mr. Frank Cunningham, 24 miles south
west of the city, on Thursday evening,
Sept. 24d, occurred the marriage of Miss Maggie Cunningham and Mr. Samuel B.
Mount, of Milan township, the ceremony
in this instance being performed by Elder
N. S. Hayes.

The invited guests present numbered
about eighty, and the occasion was one of
rare social enjoyment. The reception included that of the bride's brother, whose wedding is mentioned above. The list of guests to Mr. Charles Cunningham and
bride were as follows: Glass water pitcher,
from Miss Abby Bridgewater; butter
dish, Clara Sowers; glass water pitcher,
Miss Mary Oren; glass set, Miss Mary
Price; cream pitcher, Miss Clara Stivers;
butter dish, Miss Jennie Cunningham;
half dozen sauce dishes, Mrs. H. B. Mc-
Namee; pickle dish, Mrs. Chas. Cunningham;
half dozen napkins, Mrs. Chas. Albrecht;
pair of towels, Mr. and Mrs. C.
Cunningham; cake stand, J. L. Fletcher;
set of silver spoons, J. D. Fletcher; wash
bowl, J. L. Fletcher; rolling pin and basket,
Mrs. Albie Martin; glass set, Maudy Leff-
ingwell; half dozen napkins, Mrs. Chas.
Albrecht; pair of towels, Mr. and Mrs. C.
Cunningham; cake stand, J. L. Fletcher;
set of silver spoons, J. D. Fletcher; wash
bowl, J. L. Fletcher; rolling pin and basket,
Mrs. Albie Martin; glass set, Maudy Leff-
ingwell; same, Mrs. M. C. Purdy; wash
stand, G. M. Fletcher; quilt of jelly, Mrs.
Slyder; wash stand, Mr. and Mrs. Mount.

Following is a list of presents given to
Mr. Mount and bride: Set of sauce dishes, Miss Bell Reed; same, Miss Ottie Reed;
glass water pitcher, Mrs. Henry Martin;
pickle dish, Grandma Eberle; fruit dish,
Mrs. McQuary; set of goblets, Mrs. A.
Magin; glass cream pitcher, Miss C. Stiv-ers; glass jelly pitcher, Mrs. M. A. Stiv-ers; butter dish, Maude Leffingwell; set of sauce dishes, A. G. Martin; glass cream pitcher, Mrs. Matkey; pin cushion, Stella Matheny; pair of towels, L. G. Lynch; table cloth, Miss C. Cox; half dozen napkins,
Chas. and Nellie Cunningham; pairtowels,
Mrs. Chas. Albrecht; same, Misses Clara and May Wilson; chair tidy, Miss Dora Mat-
key; milk skimmer, Mrs. and Mr. Leffing-
well; large spoon, Alice Eberle; egg beater, E. Eberle; wash stand, Willie Eberle;
fruit dish, Ed Barnes; butter dish, Carrie Barnes; jelly dish, Alice Purdy; cake
stand, Miss S. Hammer; pair of vases, Anna Purdy; pickle dish, Miss A. McDougald; pair of vases, Minnie Price; horse shoe picture frame, Geo. Johnson; pickle dish, Mrs. Willis Johnson; fruit dish, Geo.
McQuerry; pickle dish, Miss Maggie Travis; same, Mrs. Chas Cunningham; album, Chas N. May; glass bread dish, Mrs.
Wilson; cake stand, Miss Maggie Travis; new, bureau and safe, from father and mother of the bride.

18-2d&w. NEW YORK STORE.

Go to C. W. Challis' for all kinds of ladies' mousies and children's shoes at the lowest prices, post office block
Sep. 22-d.

An immense stock of all new goods
just received at the Popular New York Store. Sept. 17-d&w.

Growing daily in popular favor—G.
sue's "King" nickel cigar. Try one.
Sep. 19-d.

A. BOURG'S celebrated brand of oysters
at Barnes', N. 21 East Main street.
Prices as follows:

Steak, 25 cents
Raw, 30 cents
Fry, 40 cents

Sept. 21-d.

Batterick's Fall Pattern Publications

AT HAND TO-DAY.

Sept. 18-d&w. LINN & SCRUGGS.

Call at C. W. Challis' before buying your fall boots and shoes. He will save you money. Post office block.

Sept. 22-d.

Springfield, Ohio.

Yarns in all colors, at F. L. Hays & Co.
21-d.

Sept. 21-d.

A good family horse will be sold cheap.
Apply to O. N. Bramble. 12-d&w.

LADIES' and men's shoes of all styles
made to measure at C. W. Challis', post office block. Sep. 22-d.

The north side of East North street is to be graded to correspond with the south side. Work will begin next week. When finished the street will present a fine appearance.

CALLING at 4 cents a yard, worth 16 cents
will be on sale Saturday next, Sept. 24.

Linn & Scroggs.

Sept. 21.

The Fox Organ.

The open house was jam-full of people
last night to witness the play of the Two Orpheus by the Cortland-Murray Combination. And it was well played. Those who missed it missed a good thing, and ought to make up for the loss by going to-night, when "Camille," that excellent and popular play, will be presented. The prediction that this company would have crowded houses during the remainder of their stay here, is being fulfilled, and we advise those who want seats to secure them early. The play last night held the closest attention of the crowded house until a late hour, and everybody went away pleased, determined to come again.
If this company ever comes this way
again, they may count on full houses for a whole week. By all means, see them in Camille to-night.

Balance, A.R.

Prof. Leonard's opening assembly, at Guard's Armory, last evening, called out a goodly number of those who desired to become acquainted with the fascinating mysteries of the terpsichorean art, as well as those who came later in the evening to trip the light fantastic. The music, by Prof. Goodman's orchestra, was new and good, and the dances drew in spirations from its entrancing strains.

OFFICERS FOR 1882.

During the day the following officers
of the Macon County Agricultural Board
were elected for the ensuing year:

President—J. G. Willard, of Harris-town. Vice-President—E. A. Jones, of Decatur.

Secretary—C. M. Durfee, of Decatur,
Treasurer—J. H. Miller, of Decatur.
Directors—J. Y. Braden, E. McNabb,
H. C. Allen, Samuel Weaver, V. Barber,
J. T. Clough, Thos. Taylor, D. K. Wilson,
Theron Powers.

KEEPING "OPEN HOUSE."

The ladies of the Decatur W. C. T. U.
in charge of the "Pledge tent and literature
depot" near Textile Hall, were kept busy all day welcoming and entreating
gallers. They served sandwiches, coffee, lemonade and water to all who wished refreshments. The attractive tent was well supplied with temperance literature which sold readily. The ladies were rejoiced
over the fact that the dice gambling outfit had been closed up, and that "one whisky shop" on the grounds had been compelled to suspend business because of their watchfulness and that of the General superintendent of the grounds, Mr.
Vancler.

POPULAR STOVES

Will L. Ferguson, the energetic hardware merchant whose place of business is on North Water street, near D. B. Sheliagor & Co.'s mill, has filled a large space in Textile Hall, with a fine show of parlor and cooking stoves sold by him.
The cooking stoves are the extension top
wood and the short top coal "Champion Monitors," acknowledged to be the best stoves on sale. They are cheap and durable and always give complete satisfaction.
The other stoves are the famous "Garland" hard coal base burner which is popular in this community, and the "Laurel," which has a duplex grate, square base and round top. It is the latest, and Ferguson has done well this year in his exhibit. Call on him at his store.

WEDDING BELLS.

Double Wedding and Reception.

The marriage of Mr. Charles S. Cunningham, of Elwin, and Miss Nellie Stiver-
s, of Decatur township, by Elder N.
S. Hayes, took place at the residence of the officiating clergyman, in this city, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 21. An account of the reception and the list of presents is given below.

At the residence of the bride's father,
Mr. Frank Cunningham, 24 miles south
west of the city, on Thursday evening,
Sept. 24d, occurred the marriage of Miss
Maggie Cunningham and Mr. Samuel B.
Mount, of Milan township, the ceremony
in this instance being performed by Elder
N. S. Hayes.

The invited guests present numbered
about eighty, and the occasion was one of
rare social enjoyment. The reception included that of the bride's brother, whose
wedding is mentioned above. The list of
guests to Mr. Charles Cunningham and
bride were as follows: Glass water pitcher,
from Miss Abby Bridgewater; butter
dish, Clara Sowers; glass water pitcher,
Miss Mary Oren; glass set, Miss Mary
Price; cream pitcher, Miss Clara Stivers;
butter dish, Miss Jennie Cunningham;
half dozen sauce dishes, Mrs. H. B. Mc-
Namee; pickle dish, Mrs. Chas. Cunningham;
half dozen napkins, Mrs. Chas. Albrecht;
pair of towels, Mr. and Mrs. C.
Cunningham; cake stand, J. L. Fletcher;
set of silver spoons, J. D. Fletcher; wash
bowl, J. L. Fletcher; rolling pin and basket,
Mrs. Albie Martin; glass set, Maudy Leff-
ingwell; half dozen napkins, Mrs. Chas.
Albrecht; pair of towels, Mr. and Mrs. C.
Cunningham; cake stand, J. L. Fletcher;
set of silver spoons, J. D. Fletcher; wash
bowl, J. L. Fletcher; rolling pin and basket,
Mrs. Albie Martin; glass set, Maudy Leff-
ingwell; same, Mrs. M. C. Purdy; wash
stand, G. M. Fletcher; quilt of jelly, Mrs.
Slyder; wash stand, Mr. and Mrs. Mount.

Following is a list of presents given to
Mr. Mount and bride: Set of sauce dish-
es, Miss Bell Reed; same, Miss Ottie Reed;
glass water pitcher, Mrs. Henry Martin;
pickle dish, Grandma Eberle; fruit dish,
Victor 3 and 5 hole drills, garden wheel-
barrow, steel scraper, feed cutter, ladder 16 feet long, 5 step ladders, 3 bunches of wire, the Balchider churn, 2 pokes, 2
school desks, grid iron, farm bell, the Elwood sulky, 2 Pakin out ground plows,
barrow, 2 cedar mulls, hay carrier, hay
fork, 4 wood pump pots, chain pump top,
two Hazel plows, 2 spring rakes, revolving rake, 2 spring tooth harrows, cultivator,
flat premium speed wagons, Hastings
wagon, Schell wagon, the Pekin cultivator, Brown corn planter with Haworth check rower attached, etc. The awarding committee on Wednesday
gave Mr. Park the first premium
over all competitors for the best display of farry implements. Since Wednesday Mr. Park's machinery has been operated by the J. I. Case & Co.
farm engine, for which he has been the agent in this part of Illinois since 1879.
The Park warerooms are at A. A. Murray's old stand, near the Tabernacle,
where the farmers will find the best
of goods at the lowest and easiest terms.

J. H. PARK'S PREMIUM DISPLAY.

Among the most attractive displays of goods in Textile Hall is Mr. J. W. Baker's case of fine shoes

